

POINTS OF PRIDE #10

01 SUMMER CREEK

Pathfinders Tarrant County, a 501c3, will be offering free financial coaching to families during the month of May. Participants are eligible for a $200 dollar-for-dollar savings match after completing four sessions. Classes will be held at Summer Creek on Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m.

02 ART AROUND TOWN

We are continuing to celebrate some of the amazing artwork done by our students during the school year in our monthly mobile traveling galleries. The May gallery is on display at the Chisolm Trail Recreation Center. The artist in residence attend June W. Davis Elementary.

03 CROWLEY HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL

The Crowley High School program will play in the UIL Texas area round with a best of three-game series vs. Birdville High School, beginning tonight at Chisholm Trail High School. First pitch is set for 7 p.m. We are sending all the best to our athletes to bring home a victory tonight. #crowleypride

04 PANTHER OLYMPICS

Everyone was all smiles Friday, April 29th at the 2022 Panther Olympics. Students from Crowley High School and North Crowley High School were able to come together for this special event for the first time since 2019. Both athletes and coaches gave their best effort allowing everyone to walk away as winners!

05 NORTH CROWLEY HIGH SCHOOL 9TH

The NC9 Lego Club, a club that provides members with communication, interaction and problem solving skills, held an exhibition on April 28th. The themes were Architecture, Music, Space Travel and Skylines Across the World. Staff and students were excited and happy to share their creations.

06 THE CROWLEY COWBOY

Congratulations to former North Crowley football standout Tyler Smith on being selected in the first round of the National Football League (NFL) draft by the Dallas Cowboys on Thursday, April 28th. Tyler graduated from NCHS in 2019 and was drafted from Tulsa. We will all be watching our Crowley Cowboy!

07 STEM SCHOLAR

We are very excited for our own Jasmine Paz. Ms. Paz graduated from Crowley High School in 2018 and received a full ride to TCU as a STEM Scholar. A first-generation college student and mechanical engineering major, Ms. Paz graduated last weekend! Congratulations, Jasmine! You are Crowley PRIDE!
