

POINTS OF PRIDE #28

01 SCISTEM FAIR

The winning projects from the District SciSTEM Fair were on display at the Tarrant Area Elementary Science Expo Saturday, May 13 at the TCC River Campus. Crowley had 15 of the 150 projects from 5 area districts. Area coordinators couldn't stop talking about how incredible our students and their projects were. Great job students! Keep up the great work!

02 CROWLEY COLLEGIATE

Congratulations to Crowley Collegiate Academy senior Ciana Butler on being named a Dell Scholar at The University of Texas at Austin. Butler joins fellow CCA classmates Caila Reid, Dianna Lopez, Jad Aqqad, Luis Cruz and Kristina Zamora who also received the prestigious scholarship. We are Crowley Proud of you!

03 HF STEVENS

Congratulations to our illustrious choir director, Ms. Beverly Heather and the Eagles Choir for their outstanding performance at the Pride of Texas Music Festival! In addition to winning several honors, the choir has also been invited to perform at Carnegie Hall next June and we can't wait! Way to SOAR!

04 North Crowley

On Tuesday, May 2nd, from 12:30 - 3:00 p.m., North Crowley High School hosted their annual College and Career Fair for over 300 seniors. Students received information and interacted with representatives from eight professional industries, nine colleges and universities and four Armed Forces. A huge thank you to Mrs. Whitney Sanchez from the Go Center and Lt. Col. Sawyer from JROTC for supporting this event.

05 MISSION POSSIBLE

Congratulations to all of the finalists that presented at the Mission Possible competition on May 19 at Main Event in Ft. Worth. The Jackie Carden Elementary Mission Accomplished and the Summer Creek Middle School Colt Conservationists took home top honors in their respective divisions. Good job on making the mission possible. We celebrate you.

06 JA HARGRAVE

On Wednesday, May 24 at JA Hargrave, the CLAWS young men were busy learning to tie neckties. CLAWS stands for Creating Leaders to Achieve Worldwide Success and we know this is just the beginning. Thank you to Assistant Principal Quentella Knox for your excellent leadership of this program.
